

Promotion of health education on AIDS prevention In December of 2025

1. New inmates:

Playing sanitation education promotional video on AIDS during investigation of new inmates to provide all inmates an initial knowledge on AIDS.
(1 times for a total of 67 person-time)

2. In-prison inmates:

Invite professional lecturers every month in a regular cyclical format to sponsor AIDS prevention class in each factory and ward to instill the correct concept and knowledge about AIDS and to teach inmates on things to watch out for and direction of future life after being released.

 A photograph showing a group of inmates in a factory setting. They are seated at long tables covered with green cloths, which are set up with various items like containers and papers. Several staff members in orange vests are standing around, assisting or monitoring the inmates. The room has white walls and a ceiling fan.	 A photograph showing a similar scene to the first, but from a slightly different angle. It shows a group of inmates seated at tables, with a staff member in an orange vest standing and pointing towards a whiteboard or poster on the wall. The whiteboard has some handwritten text and diagrams.
