

Signing Ceremony of Initiation of Solar Photovoltaic Facilities, Letters of Intent for Training and Cooperation in Solar Transport and Cooperation

At 10:10 on the morning of June 8, 107, the Supervisory Commission organized an activity "The signing ceremony for the opening of solar photovoltaic facilities, the maintenance of military training and cooperation letter of intent".

The governor, Mr. Lin Hsien-ming, addressed the guests and thanked the senior officials and VIP guests for attending this event during the busy schedule. It was also stated that this activity was conducted from the construction of a rooftop solar photovoltaic facility, linking to the planning of the Lixma general manager and the use of obstetrics Resources, co-organized maintenance training classes, and combined with the prisoner's autonomous supervision and operation program, the trainees will go out for employment during the supervision period to help rehabilitated people find jobs, hoping that the trainees will grasp the opportunity to start again and study hard. , flip the second half of your life.

The Warden of the Forest Warden signed a letter of intent with the general manager of Lixma Technology Co., Ltd. to assist in the implementation of the national green energy policy and the implementation of corporate social responsibility. It agreed to establish a long-term cooperation between the two companies and signed the letter of intent for cooperation as a basis for further cooperation between the two parties. The basis of painting.