

On June 7, 107, he handled the "Containment of Humanistic Contests – Pool Games".

Secretary Shi encouraged the asylum seekers to participate in the Wenkang Competition. The most important thing was not to win the competition but to learn the spirit of teamwork during the course of the competition; it was not arrogant and unsuccessful.

Each group had considerable strength and fierce competition. In the end, it was awarded 1, 2, and 3 by 1 workshop, 10 workshops, and 9 workshops, respectively.
